

Title	Junior Forest Contest
Organizer	Korea Forest Service (KFS)
Type of event	Topic Presentation Contest
Venue	Room 201
Date/Time	Wednesday, June 19; 13:00-17:00
Event description
Junior Forest Contest is a forest research competition performed by middle school to university students. The purpose of the contest is to nurture globally outstanding individuals and to seed future young scientists in the forest science field. The competitors will present results of their research on forest science of which subjects are forestry, biology, plant physiology, chemistry, or ecology etc. in about 10 minutes. The judges ask them questions after the presentation. 8 competitors who pass the first screening are going to make a presentation in English and the awarding will be followed by the judges on the spot.
13:00-13:05	M.C.	Opening of the session and Introduction
13:05-13:10	Kiyeon Ko, Director General, International Affairs Bureau, Korea Forest Service	Welcome remarks
13:10-15:50	Competitors	Presentation and Q&A
15:50-16:30		Competitors move around APFW venues while they are ranked in order of scores by the judges
16:30-16:50		Awarding
16:50-17:00		Closing